We welcome proposals from knowledgeable and forward-looking scientists, researchers, professionals, and others. Our authors and editors are leaders and experts in their fields of research. Join them, and let us put our dedication and experience to work for you and your book.

Why Publish with Us?

We provide our authors and editors with many advantages, including:

- A worldwide distribution network that targets scholastic, academic, professional, and library communities
- Excellent quality production services for print and electronic products
- Effective marketing campaigns that reach your audience
- A well-organized web presence and strong online marketing methods
- Many opportunities to showcase your work at professional conferences and trade shows
- Personal attention throughout the publishing process, from your initial book proposal to pre- and post-publication marketing and sales
- Competitive compensation to you for your book, including royalties and complimentary copies

Quality Production Services

Our experienced book editors and designers will work with you to transform your manuscript from first draft to a professional quality book. Our titles are published with well-designed cover art and with quality printing. Your book will be available in a professionally printed hardbound edition as well as in digital format.

Worldwide Distribution & Sales

Apple Academic Press has partnered with CRC Press, a Taylor & Francis group, for worldwide marketing and distribution. Recognized as a pioneer in scientific publishing, CRC Press maintains a reputation that is as extraordinary in its depth and quality as it is global in its impact. The professional sales staff reaches around the globe, making use of market retailers, book clubs, resellers, bookstores, the Internet, and other avenues.

Effective Marketing

Apple Academic Press is an independent company, with its own marketing resources. Combined with the marketing might of Taylor & Francis and the personal attention you'll receive from our own marketing staff, your book will get the best of both worlds. Our marketing teams employ a broad range of strategies, including direct mail, e-marketing, telesales, and conferences.

Author Compensation

As a published author with us, you will receive several complimentary copies of your book. You can also purchase additional copies for sale or signing purposes. We also offer competitive royalty compensation.
